Freedown - ASET CCIE R&S Labs

ASET labs are presented in modules and offer advanced level practice in technologies covered on CCIE lab exams. For CCIE candidates looking for a more comprehensive approach, Cisco offers the CCIE Assessor Lab.

Benefits]

The CCIE Assessor Lab offers an opportunity to improve lab performance:

? Increases confidence and comfort level with lab exam

? Identifies gaps in preparation and knowledge

? Helps develop effective test-taking strategy

? Provides hands-on equipment practice time

? Economical way to determine readiness for CCIE lab exam

Key Features]

Cisco offers the only official CCIE lab assessment designed to provide candidates with an experience similar to the actual CCIE lab exam:

? Simulates difficulty and format of exam in four-hour time period

? Provides access to live Cisco equipment from any Internet connection

? Gives detailed, line-by-line feedback

? Suggests resources for areas requiring further study

? Designed and updated by Cisco CCIE program managers
